

Gifts & Goodies in Grand Marais

Eastern Gateway to Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore

Bayshore Market: a large selection of regional gifts and books.

Bearly Makin' It: decorative painted items and photo cards by Chuck and Marianne Wittenberg. Open Fri-Sat, 10-3

Campbell Street Gallery: Original art and handmade tiles by Jo Kladzyk, and oil paintings from award-winning artist Maeve Croghan, including UP scenes and landscapes.

Creative Enterprises: the working studio/gallery of Nancy Weston. Photography, candles, stationery, and more.

The Crystal Pinecone: a North Country store by resident artists Dorothy and Peg Woropay. All kinds of unique items.

Fallscraft Gifts: specialties with a north woods flavor.

The Fishnet House: an eclectic mix of art, jewelry, paintings, clothing, and locally-made items.

Gitche Gume Museum: owner Karen Brzys creates incredible agate windows and other agate-themed items.

Grand Marais Outfitters: Opening in 2011! All kinds of items with an outdoor flavor.

The Hen House: country decorations and seasonal folk art, including birdfeeders, garden art, and door & wall hangings.

Imagine Fantasy Art and Shakti Healing Arts: original artwork, aromatherapy, massage, and healing arts. A unique shop!

North Shore Lodge: clothing and gifts of all kinds for all ages.

Superior Hardware: many styles of shirts and a variety of items from around the U.P., including books, mugs, and gifts.

Note: Shops marked with * are closed in winter.
More gift items can be found at the local museums and our other local stores.

